

INFORMATION OBLIGATION – GDPR

Due to the entry into force of the Regulation of the European Parliament and of the EU Council on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data (GDPR) of 27/04/2016 and the growing value of information, especially personal data, Nazar Sp. z o. o. SK based in Leżno is aware of the importance of threats related to the data processing process and declares to take systematic actions to prevent threats to information security, the occurrence of which may lead to the loss of confidentiality, integrity and accountability of data, and in particular to disclosure of information to unauthorized persons, damage or destruction.

To guarantee the above declaration, the Company strives to achieve a satisfactory level of security of processed information by:

- Confirmation of the need to protect information, in particular data processed in IT systems.
- Provide support for information security initiatives.
- Providing the resources needed to implement the required security measures.
- Placing special supervision over all documentation containing customers' personal data.
- Ensuring activities to shape the awareness of employees/collaborators as to the importance and importance of processed data, including personal data.

At the same time, we would like to inform you:

- I. Pursuant to Art. 13 section 1 and section 2 of the General Regulation on the Protection of Personal Data of April 27, 2016 (Journal of Laws L 119/1, 4/05/2016), the controller of the Personal Data Protection Office and the recipient of your personal data is Nazar Sp. z o. o. SK based in Leżno.
